

Mat-Su Sentinel

summer community connection bingo

|   |  |  |                                       |   |
|---|--|--|---------------------------------------|---|
| Drop off some recycling items.          | Hike, run or bike on any Mat-Su summer trail             | Attend the Happy Run (Palmer) or Get Moving Mat-Su (Wasilla) | Join a library summer reading program | Attend a free outdoor concert             |
| Volunteer at the borough animal shelter | Visit 3 Mat-Su Borough parks.                            | Shop at a veggie stand or farmer market                      | Attend a community festival           | Take swim, float or splash at Mat-Su lake |
| Go to the Alaska State Fair             | Say “hi” to Sentinel editor Amy Bushatz at a local event | ReadMat-SuSentinel                          | Attend a public meeting               | Do something touristy                     |
| Visit 3 Mat-Su region state parks       | Volunteer with a local nonprofit                         | Visit a Mat-Su museum  | Clean up litter                       | Do something outside in the rain.         |
| Visit a local brewery                   | Hike, run or move up a local trail                | Visit a local ice cream shop                                 | Read a book by a Mat-Su author        | Take a picnic to a park                   |

Connect with Mat-Su this winter as you check-off all the boxes between now and October, or simply play bingo by getting five in a row. Find links, ideas and more information for the activities in each square at MatSuSentinel.com/summer